

Read&Write- A Reading, Writing Software

All MHC students, faculty and staff now have free access to Read&Write (R&W), a literacy support tool that has replaced Kurzweil since July 01, 2021. R&W can help with everyday tasks like reading text out loud, writing, researching assignments and proofing written work. R&W can benefit struggling readers and writers, English language learners and students with learning disabilities, like dyslexia and visual impaired. Here are R&W Product Highlights.
