Appendix Name	SD 1.0 Appendix B: Student Non-Academic Misconduct Examples
Parent Policy	SD 1.0 Student Rights and Responsibilities

In addition to the behaviours prohibited under the Respectful Workplace and Learning Environment Policy, the Gender-Based and Sexual Violence Policy, and relevant program-specific student handbooks, the following list outlines examples of behaviour that constitutes non-academic misconduct. These examples apply on Medicine Hat College (MHC) property, within online and digital environments, and during off-campus activities sponsored by the college. This list is intended to be illustrative rather than exhaustive.

1. Offences against persons which include the following:
 - a. committing gender-based or sexual violence, including sexual harassment,
 - b. physically or verbally assaulting another person,
 - c. threatening another person with bodily harm,
 - d. intentionally creating a hazardous condition that endangers the health, safety, or well-being of other persons,
 - e. negatively affecting a person's ability to freely and safely participate in college programs and activities,
 - f. engaging in hate motivated activities or unwelcome behaviour toward another person based on their race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical or mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status, or sexual orientation.
 - g. hazing, including any activity that humiliates, degrades, abuses, or endangers an individual, regardless of intent for the purpose of initiation.
 - h. knowingly or maliciously making a false allegation against a college student or employee.
2. Offences relating to property, which means intentionally:
 - a. defacing or damaging the interior or exterior of any building or structure on college premises,
 - b. taking or damaging assets or property of the college or others,
 - c. taking or damaging intellectual property, information, or research belonging to the college or others,
 - d. threatening to destroy or damage the property of the college or others,
 - e. entering or remaining on college premises without authorization and upon given notice not to trespass,
 - f. using college facilities, equipment, or services without authorization (including use for a commercial, disruptive, or otherwise unauthorized purpose), or
 - g. breaching college policies regarding the use of communication and information systems and information assets.
3. Refusing to comply with college or government directives, orders, protocols, or guidelines issued during any public health or safety emergency or failing to follow the college's established health and safety policies, procedures, and guidelines.
4. Acting in a disorderly, lewd, obscene, or indecent manner.
5. Providing false information to college employees or security personnel.
