You're Invited: A Time of Smudge, Storytelling, and Teachings with Piitonista Elder Charlie Fox

We are honored to extend a special invitation to all students, staff, and faculty to gather with Piitonista Elder Charlie Fox for a morning of cultural sharing, storytelling, and teachings. This is a unique opportunity to learn from Elder Charlie's wisdom, experience traditional smudging, and hear stories that connect us to the land, history, and community.

Event Details:

- Date: Monday, January 26, 2026
- Time: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM
- Location: The Cuboid

What to Expect:

A traditional Blackfoot smudging ceremony

Storytelling and teachings from Elder Charlie Fox

Time for questions and respectful dialogue

A chance to connect with others in a meaningful way

This gathering is open to everyone, whether you are new to Indigenous cultural practices or have participated before. We aim to create a welcoming and respectful space for learning, reflection, and community building.

No registration is required—just bring an open heart and mind. We encourage you to arrive on time to fully participate in the smudging ceremony.

We look forward to sharing this meaningful experience with you.
