GO ABROAD 2022-2025 WITH ONE OF MHC'S INTERNATIONAL PARTNERS

Funding* available through the Global Skills Opportunity program

All students welcome to apply. Funding priority will be given to Indigenous students

Experience a different culture,
gain new perspectives,
grow your soft skills,
build global citizenship

*Funding will cover expenses related to the program only

NEW ZEALAND

SUSTAINABILITY AND BI-CULTURALISM 3 WEEKS

Embark on a intercultural journey to deepen your understanding of the preservation of the natural environment while broadening your cultural awareness through learning about the indigenous tribe of southern New Zealand, the Kai Tahu. Approved for MHC transfer credit to ANTH 2XX. Funding is available to cover most or all of the program expenses (i.e airfare, accommodation, transportation, etc.) for up to 8 students.

COSTA RICA

INDIGENOUS STUDIES 1 WEEK

Travel to Costa Rica over the February study break and expand your horizons. Immerse yourself in the traditions and culture of Costa Rican Indigenous group, the BriBri. Students will visit museums, participate in lectures, join cultural workshops and connect with local Bribri community leaders. Funding is available to cover program experiences (i.e airfare, accommodation, living expenses, etc.).
