

TEACHING SERIES

Writing and Refining Effective Learning Outcomes

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 15

Session Description

CITE Teaching Series provides meaningful insights on popular educational practices and supports teaching excellence at Medicine Hat College. In this session, we will explore how to create clear, measurable, and meaningful outcomes that reflect what students should know, do, and value by the end of a course. Well-written outcomes not only guide instructors in planning and assessment but also help students understand expectations.

SESSION DETAILS

October 15
12:10 - 12:50
Library Computer Lab

Open to all MHC faculty and staff.
Registration is not required. You can attend in-person or online.

Bring your bag lunch.

SESSION OBJECTIVES

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Explain the purpose and key components of an effective outcomes.
- Apply the ABCD model and Bloom's Taxonomy to write measurable and observable learning outcomes.
- Refine existing learning outcomes to improve clarity, alignment, and measurability.

For more details, please visit our website:
<https://www.mhc.ab.ca/information-for/employees/cite>

